

Support the Nearby Farmer's Market in Section 3

Bring cash or a check for the "$5 for Food" Donation Drive Benefiting the Capital Area Food Bank

The Farmers Market in Section 3 is open through the winter until the third week in March. Located at Taylor St. and Brookville Rd. with ample parking at La Ferme restaurant, the market features organic products sold in a COVID-compliant manner. Patrons must wear a mask, bring their own bag and pay by credit/debit card. The market is open on Saturdays from 9-9:30 a.m. for seniors and other vulnerable individuals and opens for all patrons from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. (rain or shine).

New Morning Farm, a Pennsylvania organic farmer, features organic citrus fruits, apples, farm fresh eggs, mushrooms, apple cider, sweet and spicy greens mix, some lovely lettuce, honey, maple syrup, cheeses and lots of other organic veggies. The market also has a wide array of veggies and baked goods. Plan to also visit the food truck, Crepe Parfait, which serves delicious hot coffee and crepes of all types as well as ready-to-heat dinner entrees.

The Village of Chevy Chase, Section 3 has launched a "$5 for Food" food donation drive during the weekly Farmer's Market. Proceeds are donated to the Capital Area Food Bank, which serves the food insecure all over our region. The Food Bank purchases food at wholesale prices and every $5 raised pays for more than twelve meals for those in need. Since the donation program was begun in early August, over $5,000 has been raised! Bring cash or a check (payable to Capital Area Food Bank) and drop it in the designated box while the Farmer's Market is open. This is a great way to give back to the many families who have been so severely impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic.

In addition to this worthwhile drive, the Farmer's Market donates the leftover food that is in good condition to a food bank in Pennsylvania near their farm and any spoiled food goes into their compost pit to grow more organic veggies.

Bring your own bags to shop at the farmers market, have breakfast and stop by some of the local merchants along Brookville Rd.
