

October 2021 CCVPD Highlights

I. Operational

- Overnight catalytic converter theft: 10/1-10/2 in the unit block of Quincy Street; the owner started her car in the morning and it was extremely loud; repair shop verified that the catalytic converter had been removed. This crime is trending upwards in the metro area; this one is the first in the Village.
- Four unlocked cars entered at night:
 - 10/4-10/5: W. Lenox Street; $11 cash taken
 - 10/5-10-6: W. Melrose Street; 3 cars entered; nothing taken

II. Administrative

- Our newest Communications Clerk, Jason Cruz, successfully completed training on October 19, and as of October 22, he began working solo on the night shift. Communications is back to full staffing.
- Chief Fitzgerald attended the Maryland Chiefs and Sheriff's annual training conference October 18-20.
